This presentation will focus on the use of art in teaching medical surgical nursing students in the classroom and lab. The presenter will present the various methods used in the teaching of the medical surgical nursing students in the classroom and lab. Specific examples that were developed by the faculty and/or students will be presented. The impact on the students learning will also be described. Lessons learned during the history of using art will be described. Finally, recommendations for the future will be discussed.